Dear Dr. Wilber:

I could not fail to be deeply moved by the dedication of a new high school in Saginaw bearing my name--moved by a sense of great pride and deep humility. For pride is stimulated by the knowledge that in your community my life and service have seemed to merit so high an honor and distinction--humility in the knowledge that such merit is reflected from the heroic sacrifices of those millions of American soldiers, sailors and airmen with whom I have served under the American Flag through twenty military campaigns. They fought that schools such as this might be dedicated to the service of a free America; and on every battlefield, in each engagement and through every successive war they sought but one assurance--that their government would accept no substitute for victory.

It is my earnest hope that the youth of America who pass through these portals in the generations to come will deeply reflect upon those sacrifices cheerfully made that there be preserved to them that liberty and freedom which has formed the keystone to the arch of our strength, security and progress as a nation--and that they, themselves, firmly resolve relentlessly to search for the means further to preserve and strengthen that liberty and freedom for the generations yet unborn.

Most faithfully,

DOUGLAS MacARTHUR.

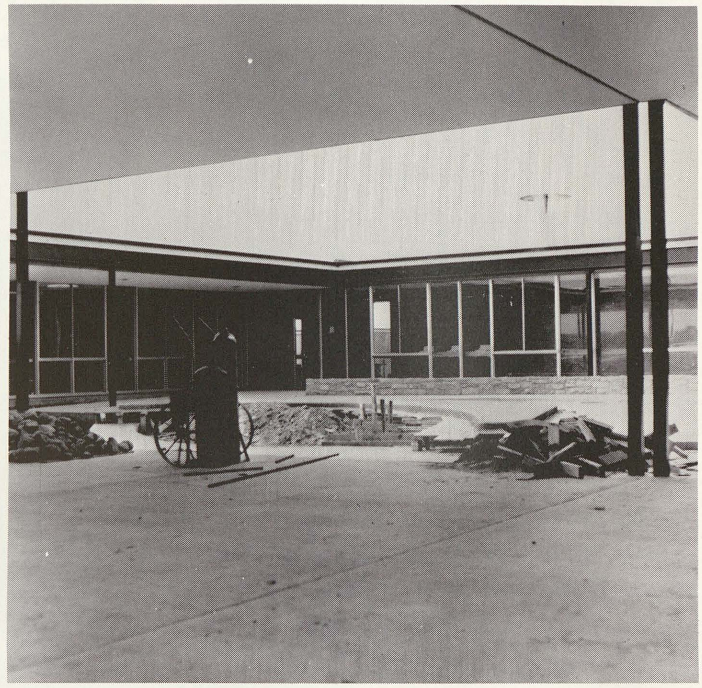

Dr. A. Mills Wilber, Superintendent,
Saginaw Township Community Schools,
Saginaw, Michigan.

OUR BEGI

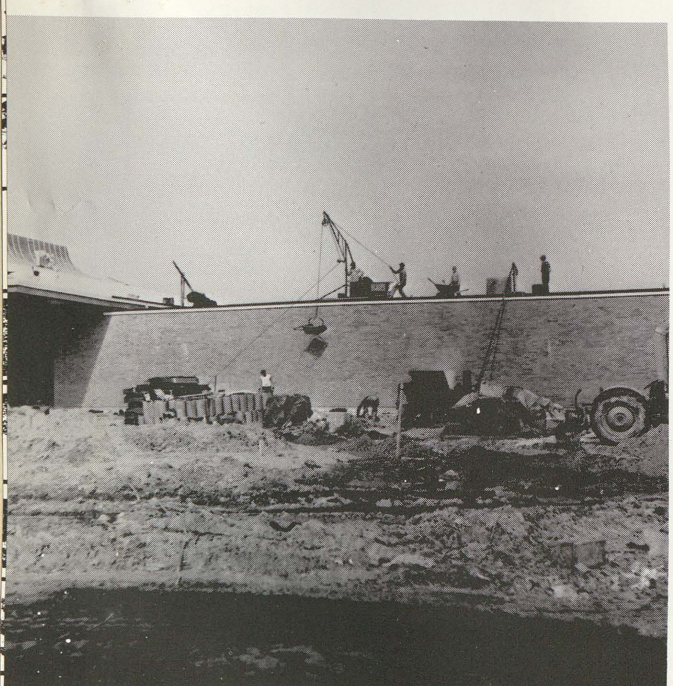

Though not entirely completed the buildings are ready for use. We entered them in September, 1961, when they were nearly completed, to begin our first year of high school.

The construction of a new building begins with beams of steel.

Bricks and roofing swing into place.

NNINGS

"Getting up is the hardest of all!"

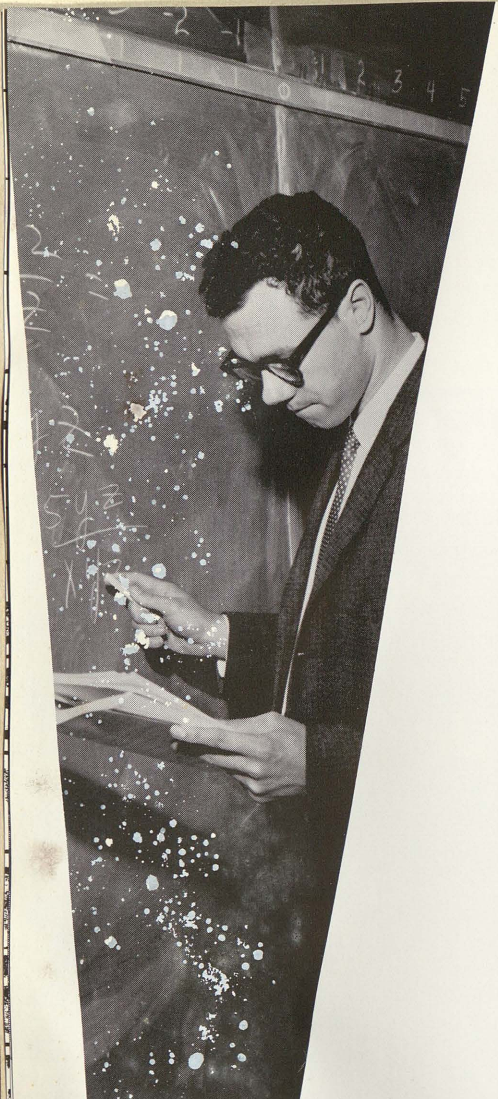

A school has a beginning. For new students each year is a beginning. In fact, each day is a beginning!

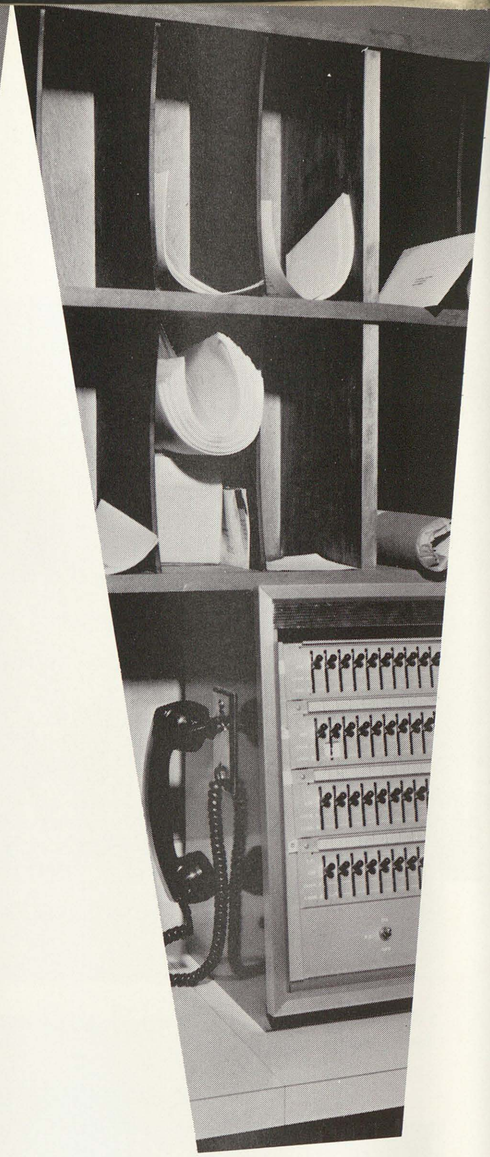

Ready and waiting for her students.

"Opps! Late again!

ADMINISTRATION

"Two roads diverged in a wood . . ."

Robert Frost

The responsibility of deciding which road to take is the faculty's and administration's.

Years of education, experience, and dedication enter into their decisions which affect students for many years to come.

Dear Members:

It is with the usual considerable pride that these few words are written concerning the anticipated publication of our first annual, ITELLA. The entire school community joins with me in congratulating those of you who exerted great effort in this work. Special praise should be reserved for your faculty advisors, Miss Georgia Egan, Mr. James Lamson and Mrs. Mabel Brooks; for your competent co-editors, Miss Laurie Davis and Miss Jeanne Wallace; for your business manager, Kim Goldberger; and for the host of students who spent many after-school hours in dedicated work. Surely the result will be worth the effort.

Again, congratulations on your superb contribution which the annual makes to our school. Please accept my personal thanks.

Very sincerely yours,

Roy J. Alexander

AT SCHOOL Mrs. Barnhart chats with 9th grade student.

AT HOME Mrs. Barnhart chats with daughter Susan.

MRS. LAURA BARNHART

has been on the faculty of Douglas MacArthur High School for its first two years. She has served as a Group Guidance teacher and as a counselor for the freshman class.

Preparation for her teaching career started when she graduated from St. Charles High School and entered Central Michigan College. Beginning with her first year of teaching she went to school every Saturday for five years to obtain a Bachelor of Science Degree from Central Michigan. She also earned a Master's Degree in Supervision and Administration from the University of Michigan. Presently she is working toward a Specialist in Guidance Degree from the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

Among Mrs. Barnhart's past positions have been: Dean of Girls at Chesaning High School, supervisor of youth activities for the State Grange, Camp Director of Hartley Nature Camp, and Supervisor for the Saginaw County Schools.

For the past year she has been president of Saginaw Township Education Association, and president of St. Charles' Study Club. One of Mrs. Barnhart's hobbies is writing. She has written two booklets, one on the history of St. Charles and one on the history of Brant Township.

Mrs. Barnhart lives with her husband Bill and her six year old daughter Susan on their two hundred and twenty acre farm in Brant Township.

For many of our students Mrs. Barnhart provides sympathetic listening, words of encouragement, and gentle direction. Like many other faculty members she consistently demonstrates some of the best of human traits and qualities. Therefore, Mrs. Barnhart, we have selected you—

AT WORK!

Mrs. Jean Kirchner at left is responsible for "child accounting." This, means that players of hooky (not a sport) will be noticed.

Mrs. Doris Eckhardt is secretary for Mr. Alexander. Hers is a friendly voice on the phone to many school callers.

V.I.P.S. . . . Very important persons are our cafeteria ladies. Their fried chicken, pizza, and spaghetti make lunch time a pleasure. From left to right are: Mrs. Ruth Dill, Mrs. Lucille Lindner, Mrs. Gladyce Bonner, and Mrs. Louise LaCross.

These Are Our "Firsts."

Rod Gilchrist submitted the winning title for our school paper: The Campus Courier.

Cheerleaders began unifying school spirit almost as early as the opening of school. Grace Hutchinson was one of the first cheerleaders. She was also selected "Outstanding Cheerleader" of '62 and '63.

Art students submitted designs for an official school seal. In an all school election, Hollis McCabe's design was selected.

ORGANIZATIONS &

ACTIVITIES

Many of our organizations are entering their second year of activity. They are contributing to the individual student's experiences as well as to our school's spirit.

SEATED: L. Williams, S. Busch, K. Matowski, C. Kitsch, N. Hoover, P. Lacy, K. Withy, N. Beach, L. Grinnell. STANDING: M. Schoenmyer, S. Henderson, J. Ostrom, D. Pfau, M. Fitzmource, Sponsor, Mr. Lamson, M. Amble, D. Brechtelsbauer, G. Cook, K. Hurst, E. Zamora.

The study of art at Douglas MacArthur includes not only drawings and paintings, but art appreciation as well. This art course encourages drawings as the language of expression of ideas.

On December 14-15, 1962, the members put on a Christmas sale at which they sold handmade jewelry. The sale's purpose was to raise money for the school library.

This art club is sponsored by Mr. Lamson, who spends many Saturdays helping members to express themelves in the arts.

HONOR CLUB 1961-1962

The Honor Club, or Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was established in the second semester of the 1961-1962 school year. The name Sigma Alpha Epsilon means: Scholastic Average Excellence.

The Honor Club was established to bring recognition to those students who obtained a 9.6 average in their classes. To become eligible a student must maintain a 9.6 average for one semester.

The Club took a trip to Delta College, and also heard the Dean of Northwood Institute speak on education.

The S.A.E. was honored at a banquet that was given by the Booster Club in May of 1962.

Student Council

The Student Council is a representative body elected by the students. Its function is somewhat like the Congress of the United States. It also is a bridge between the students and the administration. The representatives are elected in the fall and serve for one school year, as do the officers. The Student Council is elected to serve the student body and is working very hard to do so.

Bob Rorke, Jan Bronner, Connie Diamond, Linda De Masellis, Linda Varner and Bob Mikoleizik receive awards for their efforts in the stamp drive from Mr. Hall, Library Fund Chairman of the Booster Club.

Stamps for Books

Douglas MacArthur completed its Stamp Book Drive on February 15, 1963. The object of the drive was to raise money for buying more books for our library. Altogether 410 books were collected. The total monetary value of the books was $1,025.00.

The drive was set up as a contest between the freshmen and the sophomores. The freshmen, being far behind at the time decided to make an all out effort to win the contest on the last day, they turned in all the books they had collected and won by a landslide.

Linda Varner with 103 books far exceeded any of her competitors. She took top place in individual rewards. Linda De Masellis, took second place, with 23 books. Connie Diamond, Bob Rorke and Jan Bronner tied by collecting 22 books apiece.

Dance for Fun

"If You Wanna be Happy for the Rest of Your Life"—

This was the year of the "Twist" and the "Bosa-Nova."

Social gatherings, gossiping sessions, and dancing pleasure. These are the ingredients which went into many evenings of fun and entertainment at our many dances this year.

The student body seemed to wholly support these monthly affairs, at which a cheerful atmosphere always prevailed.

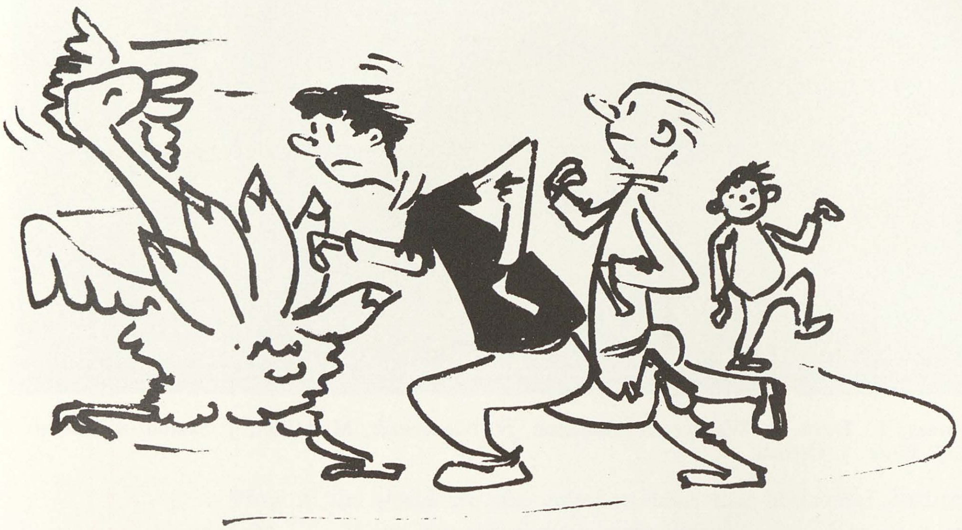

Music by the "Detonators."

Turkey Trot

She should be in the running!

Turkey Trot became a tradition on the first run. Even though it was a cold, blustery, November day, a large crowd appeared to watch the runners race through the obstacle course. This event was put on by the Student Council. Live turkeys went to the winners: Jim Payton, Mr. Felmlee, Dale Brown and Grace Hutchinson.

It takes more than one committee to make a yearbook. Here the CLASSES COMMITTEE is hard at work with their final preparations.

"How in the world are you going to make that horizontal picture fit in that vertical space?" . . . "Kim, you put those pictures back!" . . . "Yes dear, the pictures do have to be proportioned" . . . "Now tell me again how you got those page numbers mixed up" . . . "And, if I get this page back just one more time!"

These were the typical remarks which filled the tiny business machines room where the staff scrambled desperately against time to produce the ITELLA. Despite numerous mental collapses and nervous breakdowns, the kids stuck to their famous battle cry, "The ITELLA must go through."

From the ITELLA staff comes the yearbook, binding together the factors of our school life.

Greetings From Itella, Number One.
